Registration Requirements

Upon receipt of this completed Registration Form accompanied by the appropriate Registration Fee and Deposit(s), we will email you the Camp Packet. The Camp Packet contains the necessary documents that need to be completed and returned before your child's first day of camp to confirm your camp registration, including:

Universal Health Record completed by your child's physician within the past year and proof of up-to-date immunizations
Completed Emergency Card
Signed Field-trip Permission Slip
Signed Scarlet KIDS Waiver Form and Camper Code of Conduct
Completed Parking Registration Form (if applicable—applies to families who do not have current University parking privileges)

The completed Camp Packet is due by June 2, 2017 and full payment of tuition and fees is required by April 1st to finalize your camp registration. Parents are encouraged to contact their child's physician in advance to ensure that they are able to obtain the necessary health records. Failure to provide the full, completed Camp Packet and payment of tuition in full may result in de-registration from the camp without refund of any tuition or fees previously paid.

I understand and agree to adhere to the Registration Requirements listed above and contained within this registration form.
