

Topic of Interest:

Sun-sational Summer!
Summer Treats

Lollipops Weekly Activity Plans

This week in our Lollipop room we will continue of discussion of summer fun and this week will include summer treats. We will be trying lots of sweet stuff such as watermelon, making our ice cream and lemonade.

Week of:
August 14 - 18

***Our center will be closed the last week of August for Professional Development***

Goals and Objectives:

- Match similar objects, begin to identify shapes, begin to count to 8, begin to sort objects
- Listens and understands language, comprehends and responds to books, follows directions
- Demonstrates fine-motor strength and coordination, demonstrates balance and coordination
- Explore the visual arts

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Mathematics	Watermelon counting song Finding numbers on watermelons	Water Play Day! Feed the Wacky Watermelon color identification game	Ice cream scoop number matching	Ice cream shape matching 	Water Play Day! How many ice cubes? Counting song
Language and Literacy	Read, The Watermelon Seed by Greg Pizzoli 	Read, Watermelon Wishes by Lisa Moser	Read, Ice Cream Summer by Peter Sis Sing, Funny Flavors ice cream song	Read, Splat the Cat I Scream for Ice Cream by Laura Driscoll Ice cream letter matching	Read, Max's Bunny Business by Rosemary Wells
Physical	Playing with watermelon scented playdough	Scoping and pouring water in the water tables	Melting ice cream wiggle dance!	Using our shaking and jumping skills to make our ice cream in a bag	Scoping and pouring water in the water tables
Art, Science, Sensory Experiences	Exploring watermelon sensory bags	Enjoying watermelon for snack Watermelon process art	Popsicle art Painting with colored ice cubs	Snacktivity! Making ice cream in a bag	Tasting lemons Lemonade art

Notes and Reminders: We will be having water play every Tuesday and Friday (weather permitting). Please remember to apply sunscreen every morning before arriving to school.

Home-School Connection Ideas: Long warm summer nights are the perfect opportunity for family memories. Spend time outdoors with your child listening to the sounds of a summer night and trying to catch fireflies. Children are only small for a short while so take the time to make as many special moments as possible.